ROBERT ENGLUND AUTOGRAPH POLICY

- The demand for Robert Englund autographs may be greater than the time available for his autograph signings.

Robert Englund autograph signing procedure at Flashback Weekend 2025:

- Ultimate ticket holders will line up first.
- Weekend and Single day ticket holders who have a line-up number will be instructed on when they may line-up in Robert's autograph line. This is to avoid a long wait time in line.

When you arrive at Flashback Weekend:

Before the doors open to the convention each day, there will be two lines.

LINE A

The line at the registration desk - This is the line you get in to have your advance tickets scanned or to purchase your tickets to Flashback Weekend. You get your wristbands in LINE A.

LINE B

The line to get into the convention. After you get your wristbands, you may enter the line to get into the convention

Do not get into Line B unless you have your convention wristband.

GENERAL Autograph Line-Up tickets will be distributed to those at the front of Line B - the Line to get into the convention.

The line-up tickets will be distributed to the line to get into the convention, not the line to get tickets. You need to have your convention wristband to receive a line-up ticket.

- This ticket has no cash value.
- These tickets are non-transferable and may not be sold.
- Do NOT purchase a line-up ticket from ANYONE. If you attempt to use a ticket purchased or received from anyone other than Flashback Weekend, it is not valid, and you will not be given a place in the line for Robert's autograph.

Flashback Weekend policy on celebrity guests who have long autograph lines:

Please note that if a celebrity guest has long autograph lines, it may not be possible for that celebrity to sign autographs for every fan who wants to meet them.

Convention ticket refunds will not be given in this case.

We ask that everyone attend for the entire convention experience, not just one celebrity guest.
